University of Southern Queensland Performance Centre’s Shakespeare in Queen’s Park Festival began in March 2004. It returns bigger and better than ever in 2005. The hugely popular Platform Performances on dusk will involve over 1500 local people of all ages and talents in a whirl of colour and energy. The ‘platties’ precede this year’s mainstage arena production of The Taming of the Shrew directed by Leticia Caceres. In an innovation for 2005 we have added two Studio Tent shows: Shakespeare’s Women Cabaret and Clown Verona both featuring USQ graduates. We are proud of them and thrilled to welcome them back home. And then there’s the Big Brunch celebration on the final Sunday of the Festival. Truly, as we come together for two weeks in the late summer, Toowoomba’s own Shakespeare in Queen’s Park Festival is the place to be.

USQ Performance Centre are delighted to celebrate our community and its talents with performances inspired by the world’s most popular playwright.

Set in the steamy streets of Buenos Aires, this tango-driven tussle of passion will set the Park alight with vibrant colours, flirtatious trysts and the steady drumming beat of love. Directed by one of Queensland’s rising star directors, and featuring final year actors from University of Southern Queensland’s Department of Theatre, Shakespeare’s most loved comedy of passions promises to be the perfect entertainment for a summer’s evening under the stars.

Romeo and Juliet as told by clowns.

Featuring the cream of the University’s graduate actors, Clown Verona has more laughs, tears and calamity than a three-wheeled billycart going down a hill! A show for the whole family.

In an all-sung extravaganza of comic mayhem, three witches conjure the great bard from a vat of mead to work out what his problem was with women. Why do all his heroines end up dead? Featuring Jo Butler & Sarah McCoy, fresh from their sell-out Brisbane cabaret Bathroom Diaries, this late night cabaret offers a chance to kick back, share a drink with friends and laugh your way to midnight.

Showcasing the creativity and performance skills of more than fifteen hundred people, the Platform Performances launch each night’s festival entertainment on the main-stage. Featuring a feast of song, dance, gymnastics and a range of activities beyond imagination, this is your opportunity to get together and celebrate our diverse and wonderful community.

Held on the final Sunday of the Festival, the Big Brunch is a chance for people from across the region to gather in the Park, share in a hearty brunch menu and get involved in a myriad of entertainment and craft activities. Interactive workshops, kite-making, heritage crafts, picnic races, clown performances - bring the kids, bring the grand-parents - there’s something for everyone.
