 Organised by the Korean Economic History Society, in cooperation with the Institute of Economic Research (Seoul National University) and the Economic History Society of Australia and New Zealand

Theme: Markets, institutions and people in economic crisis and recovery

Call for Papers

Papers and proposals for sessions are invited for the APEBH 2013 conference. The main conference theme is 'Markets, institutions and people in economic crisis and recovery' but the organisers are open to proposals for contributions on other topics in economic, social, and business history, as well as to proposals for sessions on particular themes.

ALL ABSTRACTS, PROPOSALS FOR SESSIONS, AND PAPERS FOR REFEREEING OR POSTING ON THE CONFERENCE WEBSITE SHOULD BE EMAILED TO ALL FOUR MEMBERS OF THE PROGRAMME COMMITTEE by 17 DECEMBER 2012:

Professor Chulhee Lee, Seoul National University, chullee@snu.ac.kr

Dr Duol Kim, Korea Development Institute, duolkim@kdi.re.kr

A/Professor Lionel Frost, Monash University, Lionel.Frost@BusEco.monash.edu.au

Dr Keir Reeves, Monash University, Keir.Reeves@monash.edu

Paper abstracts of one page may be submitted at any time up to the closing date of 17 December 2012. A decision on proposals will be made within a month of submission. Session proposals of one page may be submitted up to the same date, outlining the main objectives of the session and potential participants. You are not obliged to submit your full paper for refereeing. Complete versions of accepted papers should be sent to us by 4 February 2013 for posting on the conference website.

Some universities require staff attending conferences to have their papers refereed. If this is the case in your institution, please submit the full paper by the 17 December 2012 due date for the double blind refereeing process.
