In the event that your exhibition proposal is not successful no correspondence in relation to the selection process or its outcomes will be entered into.
Should your exhibition proposal be accepted the following conditions will apply:

1) EXHIBITION DELIVERY & INSTALLATION

All components of the exhibition are to be delivered to Dogwood Crossing on the Monday prior to the advertised exhibition opening, unless required or organised as otherwise.

Framing, mounting and transport of artworks are the responsibility of the exhibitor/curator, as well as transit insurance if required.

All components of the exhibition are to be completed, ready to hang and presented to a professional standard that includes appropriate framing and hanging/installation fixtures (ie. two good sized D-hooks for wall hanging pieces).

The Gallery Exhibition Team is responsible for the design and display of each exhibition in consultation with the exhibitor. The curator or exhibitor (at least two in the case of a group exhibition) will also be expected to assist with installation of the exhibition under the guidance of the Supervisor or Cultural Officer, with assistance from Art Gallery Committee Members and Gallery Groupie Volunteers, in accordance with Gallery standards.

Please advise the facility Supervisor or Cultural Officer as soon as you are aware of the possibility that sections of the exhibition could be offensive or be misinterpreted by some viewers. The Supervisor or Cultural Officer can veto the work included in the exhibition and remove works considered to be offensive to the public.

2) EXHIBITION COLLECTION DATES

All unsold components of the exhibition are to be removed from the Gallery in a timely fashion following the exhibition close, within a 2 week time frame.

3) EXHIBITION INVITATIONS / PUBLICITY

Responsibility for the design and printing of the invitations, catalogue and poster rests with Dogwood Crossing, with input from the curator/exhibitor in relation to possible ideas/layout and information required. Dogwood Crossing supplies the following quantities of each:

- A small catalogue (generally titles and prices only)
- 10 x A3 size poster/flyer
- upto 150 x invitations (professionally printed)
- Digital version of the invitation for emailing
- Email and mail out to Dogwood Crossing Gallery Database
- Extra invitations over 150 & postage are the responsibility of the exhibitor/s
Exhibitors will be required to provide a mailing list in an excel spreadsheet to Dogwood Crossing six weeks out from the exhibition opening, if wishing to utilise this option.

Media releases in relation to the exhibition will also be arranged by Dogwood Crossing via the associated media outlets commonly engaged by the facility.

It is the exhibitor’s responsibility to liaise with the Cultural Officer and nominate an appropriate person to open the exhibition.

In the case of a group exhibition, a representative from your group should be appointed and made available for media opportunities that may arise. Otherwise, the sole exhibitor will ensure they are available for media comment.

(4) INSURANCE

Western Downs Regional Council has a small Insurance Policy that covers artworks from their arrival at Dogwood Crossing until their collection at the agreed uplift date.

For high profile exhibitions it is a requirement that the exhibitions have their own insurance coverage that adequately covers the exhibition in transit, during handling stages and whilst on display. Please supply a copy of relevant insurance as part of your application, if applicable.

(5) OPENING NIGHT FUNCTION

Unless otherwise agreed to, the opening night function will be on the Friday evening of the exhibition installation and will be held between 6:30pm and 8:30pm.

The Supervisor or Cultural Officer will advise on the protocols that need to be adopted for these functions.

Dogwood Crossing provides:

- some assistance in opening functions, including: three to four small cheese/antipasto platters, some beverages, wine & champagne glasses, stubby coolers and tables.
- 2 staff and some volunteers to assist with the opening function and sales.
Curator/ Exhibitors responsibilities include:

- provision of any further refreshments at the opening. It is a requirement that if alcohol is served, light refreshments (cheese and/or finger food) must be available.
- assistance will also be required in relation to set up and pack up of associated opening functions, unless otherwise arranged.

All visitors and exhibitors must vacate the building before 9:00pm on the evening of the opening.

(6) CATALOGUE OF WORKS

Preparation of captions for the works, artist statements and catalogue information will be designed and implemented by Dogwood Crossing, in consultation with the curator/ exhibitor. This information must be provided six weeks prior to the exhibition opening.

The curator/exhibitor will also need to provide details of value of artworks for insurance and/or sale (taking into account the 20% commission).

Additional requirements such as colour catalogues, may be considered and be possible with financial input from the exhibitor/s.

(7) SIGNAGE

All signage or promotional material proposed for the John Mullins Memorial Art Gallery will be designed by Dogwood Crossing.

(8) OTHER EVENTS IN THE GALLERY

During exhibitions Dogwood Crossing may be utilised by Western Downs Regional Council for many other events such as book launches, author visits or meetings. As a multi- purpose facility there are many cultural activities that are undertaken at the facility. The John Mullins Memorial Art Gallery exhibition space is not however directly impacted by these kinds of activities.

Artists and organisations coordinating exhibitions are encouraged to deliver workshops, artist talks (about their work and the creative process) and educational talks. This will attract people to the space to see the exhibition and provide the public with access to those involved. Such events are welcomed and are to be proposed in the exhibition application.
(9) SALE OF WORKS

Artworks may be for sale. Dogwood Crossing John Mullins Memorial Art Gallery takes a 20% commission on sales made. All commissions assist Dogwood Crossing’ public programming and activities. Any sales will be receipted by Dogwood Crossing staff.

Artist’s payments will be made within a two to four week time period following the exhibition close and or the finalisation of purchaser’s payments.

Dogwood Crossing John Mullins Memorial Art Gallery has a comprehensive purchasing policy to assist with the timely collection of funds from purchasers.

(10) OTHER

If the curator/ exhibitor has requirements above and beyond those outlined above as provided by Dogwood Crossing, arrangements will need to be made with the facility Supervisor with funds to deliver on these requirements provided by the curator/ exhibitor. For example (extensive catalogue, extra posters or invitations, opening function extras-food and refreshments).

The curator/ exhibitor will be required to address the statements within the application form in relation to whether artworks may be photographed while on display and for inclusion in the Artist Database located at Dogwood Crossing.
