After a number of successful duo releases, vocalist Kristin Berardi and guitarist James Sherlock have joined forces again - celebrating some memorable standards on their latest outing.

James Sherlock and Kristin Berardi (pictured) have just dropped a new album, appropriately titled I'm Glad There's You. Well, we're glad for this album too! The experienced pair delve into some choice standards, and we'll hear the classic 'What A Little Moonlight Can Do' as well as Charlie Haden's 'First Song.'

Also on the playlist is music from the ex-Canberran Liam Budge, now based in New York City - as well as Melbourne's The Sugarfoot Ramblers.
